

Sinclair Broadcasting's actions are scary. The airwaves are a public trust, and according to the Commission are supposed to be used "to serve the public interest." I don't see how this latest move serves the public interest, and would like to know how you will take action. Thanks.